About Compass

Designed to reduce cost without sacrificing quality, Compass® Products by Hubbell Lighting, Inc. provide a value-driven, contractor-friendly product offering that can be purchased and installed without compromise.

How do you define “value”? For many, it equates to cost effective, quality products that perform reliably. For others, value means conserving capital, lowering transaction costs and minimizing returns. For everyone, quality is synonymous with having their expectations fully met or exceeded.

The Compass Series satisfies all these criteria.

The Compass line currently includes Life Safety Products: emergency lighting units, exit signs, remote lighting heads

Life Safety Products are listed to UL Standard 924, Emergency Lighting and Power Equipment.

Compass products are in stock, and usually ship within 24 hours of order entry.

All Compass products are backed by the sales and service support that has made Hubbell Lighting, Inc. a leading manufacturer and supplier of task and convenience lighting products for residential, commercial and light industrial applications.
